british rule of india brought together two very different traditions of scholarship about language whose conjuncture led to several intellectual breakthroughs of lasting value two of these were especially important the conceptualization of the indo european language family by sir william jones at calcutta in 1786 proposing that sanskrit is related to persian and languages of europe and the conceptualization of the dravidian language family of south india by f w ellis at madras in 1816 the dravidian proof showing that the languages of south india are related to one another but are not derived from sanskrit these concepts are valid still today centuries later this book continues the examination thomas r trautmann began in aryans and british india 1997 while the previous book focused on calcutta and jones the current volume examines these developments from the vantage of madras focusing on ellis collector of madras and the indian scholars with whom he worked at the college of fort st george making use of the rich colonial record trautmann concludes by showing how elements of the indian analysis of language have been folded into historical linguistics and continue in the present as unseen but nevertheless living elements of the modern india brief history of a civilization provides a brief overview of a very long period allowing students to acquire a mental map of the entire history of indian civilization in a short book most comprehensive histories devote a few chapters to the early history of india and an increasing number of pages to the more recent period giving an impression that early history is mere background and that indian civilization finds its fulfillment in the nation state thomas r trautmann believes that the deep past lives on and is a valuable resource for understanding the present day and for creating a viable future the result is a book that is short enough to read in a few sittings but comprehensive in coverage 5 000 years of india in brief considers an important dimension in understanding culture in his painstakingly long academic journey through mountains of source material available in europe prof prodosh aich establishes that the entire understanding of india developed by self claimed scholars from west is erroneous since the initial attempt to comprehend ancient india through the vedas was itself faulty he questions the validity of the works of the famous western scholars who translated the vedic literature into english german and italian a vast majority of them did not even set foot on the indian soil and those who came here did not learn the ancient languages in an organised manner even though translation needs an equal command of both languages since neither the vedic language nor the sanskrit were spoken languages since ages it was all the more difficult for them to develop language skills required for translation colonialist imperial england had prepared a concerted design to establish the superiority of blond blue eyed white christian culture over other cultures that they opted to define as primitive particularly in case of india prof aich uses juxtaposition to drive home a point and leaves judgement to readers he frames a question and then answers it by using the primary source material the book is bound to trigger an academic debate in the west also and would go a long way to establish once for all that the much trumpeted and self championed discipline of indology in the west has in fact been based on falsehood it must have been a design that none of the scholars so far bothered to use the existing material so abundantly available which could have helped to unravel the truth about the colonial powers and imperial administration and bureaucracy scholars after scholars even after the end of colonial empire have continued to overlook the material that would have removed the well laid myths about indian society polity and culture we are what we know we know what is handed down our daily life is organised by historical narrations universally to judge over the validity of historical narrations and of history we must know all about those narrators of history today and during the last two centuries all narrators of history are educated in institutions created by european christians they narrate history incoherently though the history all over is coherent and interdependent the libraries are flooded by incoherent deliberations and with books that are copied and pasted from other books this is more so since the rise of the ottoman empire since the blockade of the land route and beginning of search for a sea route to india and all that has followed thereafter until our days why do they narrate incoherently though historical developments are coherent and interdependent by its nature why do they copy and paste and duplicate to judge over the validity of historical narrations in their books the authors of this book search and investigate into the acquired qualifications and careers of all main narrators of this history the search is based on primary documents the result of this search is thrilling mysterious and stunning we are fed by books that are based on secondary sources these books are mere propaganda which should be stored in bad libraries the result of this search has banged on the pandora s box and it is open now
